With an unyielding dedication to full service through an individualized concierge platform offered to all of her clientele, Jeannine Savory and her highly talented team, The Savory Group, have captured the attention of the high profile real estate audience throughout San Diego County. After graduating from the Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising where she studied interior design and architectural space planning, she went on to work for the top interior designer in Del Mar before dedicating herself full time to real estate in 2002. Jeannine has been honored with the “Best in Client Satisfaction” award from 2008-2016, as featured in San Diego Magazine.

Impeccably renovated with a sophisticated appeal, this penthouse is perched above the nation’s largest urban cultural park; Balboa Park. Residence 12 at Park One is a highly upgraded space that includes its own private elevator vestibule that delivers you to your oversized condominium which occupies the entire floor to itself with custom designer finishes throughout, floor-to-ceiling windows, a top of the line kitchen, and spacious living areas to delight in quiet solitude or revel in seamless entertaining.
